Greetings from President Ivy Yeung

Aloha UCS Ohana,

It is an honor to serve as the 98th President of the United Chinese Society of Hawaii, an organization that has united and uplifted our community for over 140 years. Yet, the story of the Chinese in Hawaii began long before the founding of UCS, when our ancestors arrived on these shores with hopes of building a better future.

Through perseverance and a deep sense of community, they not only preserved their heritage but also embraced the spirit of aloha, creating a unique identity that honors both Chinese traditions and the Hawaiian culture. This special connection is what makes the Chinese community in Hawaii truly remarkable—a community rooted in resilience, collaboration, and cultural pride.

As we embark on 2025, the Year of the Wood Snake, we are reminded of the qualities it represents: renewal, wisdom, and transformation. These values resonate deeply with our mission this year, as we strive to sustain our culture while building a brighter future.

Our theme, "Sustaining Our Culture, Building Our Future," serves as a guiding principle. We remain dedicated to preserving the legacy of those who came before us while fostering opportunities for future generations. Whether through beloved traditions like the Family Day Picnic or innovative programs such as UCS NextGen, we aim to celebrate our shared history and inspire the next chapter of our journey.

To our member societies, presidents, and volunteers: your dedication keeps our culture alive and thriving. To our leadership team: thank you for your vision and hard work. Together, we honor our ancestors, embrace our present, and prepare for a vibrant future. Let us continue to celebrate and strengthen the bonds that make our community so special. Thank you for your support of UCS and your commitment to our shared legacy.

Xie Xie and Mahalo Nui Loa,

Ivy Yeung

Aloha from Outgoing President Mona M. Choy

Aloha,

It was an honor to serve the United Chinese Society, representing UCS at many society events, business gatherings and meetings during the year of 2024. Together with this year's UCS officers, we completed our duties and accomplished many goals.

These goals included adding additional cultural & informational workshops to the yearly schedule, holding the Members Meet & Greet as well as the Society President's Round Table, and creating the NexGen leadership & mentoring program to help our future local leaders grow.

I would like to take this opportunity to offer my heartfelt gratitude to the executive board and committee chairs: Ivy Yeung, Robert Yu, Peter Ma, Cy Feng, Wendy Mow, Lena Wong, Jill Fukumoto, Lori Kam, Victor Lim and advisor Leonard Kam, as well as to the trustees who volunteered their time supporting UCS in 2024.

Congratulations to the 2024 Hall of Honor recipient Mr. Eddie Flores, Jr. A big mahalo for your contributions to the United Chinese Society, the Chinese community, and the people of Hawai'i. Aloha and best wishes to the 2025 Executive board and trustees. I look forward continuing my partnership with you in the coming years.

Mona Choy

Immediate Past President (2024)

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

(L-R) (Picture 1) Hocking Building Grand Opening and Affordable Housing Launch On November 15, 2024, UCS was invited to the blessing and grand opening of the newly renovated Hocking Building, with Ivy in attendance. Located at the corner of N. King Street and Nuʻuanu Avenue, the historic building has been transformed into an affordable housing project, offering 40 apartments for families earning 30 to 50 percent of the area median income. This project is a significant step in preserving Honolulu’s history while addressing the critical need for affordable housing in Chinatown.

(Pictures 2-3) President Ivy extended her congratulations to President Brenda Young Matsui and the ACUW leadership team during their Installation on December 7, 2024, at the Kahala Hotel, where their theme, "Phoenix Returns," was celebrated. An Honorary Director is a member who has been recognized as a benefactor to the Society through outstanding services, such as serving an officer or director. This award is the highest that Society bestows. It was voted by members in the November General Membership & Election meeting that a special Posthumous Honorary Director be recognized as someone who has truly carried out the mission of Oo Syak Gee Lu Society by “developing, promoting, and maintaining harmony amongst members of OSGL and their descendants. Clayton served as a Director of Oo Syak Gee Lu Society since 2007, and became Membership Chairperson in 2015. With his committee, he allowed persons in the female lineage to become members of our society. His Presidency in 2018 and 2019 brought in the educational aspect in our meetings. He wanted to encourage our members to know what the society is about, and not just a “free lunch” society. Since his passing in February last year, and with all of his efforts dedicated to OSGL Society, President Debbie Chun and BOD Alicia Sakamoto presented the special 2025 Posthumous Honorary Director to his family – daughter Jamie Chang (with husband Raymond Lam), and his son Brandon Chang (with wife Betty).

Associated Chinese University Women (ACUW)

On October 23rd, we helped the River of Life Mission once again. Thank you to ACUW members Cappy Sin, Lola Fu, Elizabeth Lum, Rosalind Chun, Ann Pang and Laurie Broderick who wrapped forks, bagged snacks, scooped cereal, and wrapped pastries to be distributed through their mobile hub program. We also were treated to a very interesting tour of the facility where we learned much more about the River of Life's programs to lead the homeless to a future beyond the streets.

We got in one last community service event for the year on November 3rd. ACUW members entertained the residents at Palolo Chinese Home with song and dance! President Brenda Young Matsui performed a beautiful Chinese fan dance, Michela Hammond performed a lovely hula and a fun Bollywood dance, Paula Fukuda elegantly played the piano, Karen Wong sang songs in Chinese and Japanese, and Roberta Wong Leung played the lap harp dulcimer while Michela led a sing along with the residents. Roberta also led an interactive sit down hula to Pearly Shells that the residents really enjoyed! Thank you to these members for sharing their special talents and also to members Frances Goo, Allison Eberly, Lisa Osurman, Ruby Jung, and Edwina Lee for coming to support!

ACUW CHRISTMAS INSTALLATION EVENT - THE PHOENIX RETURNS!!

On Saturday, December 7th, we installed Brenda Young-Matsui for a second term and her Board members and Committee Chairs at The Kahala Hotel and Resort. It was a beautiful day in paradise.

We started half an hour later than scheduled as we were waiting for the VIPs to show up and they finally came straggling in. However, we managed to get back on schedule. We started with lion dances by Lung Kong Physical Culture Club. Brenda was previously a member of that troupe, and she gave them the lisee with the long bamboo pole.

Our Master of Ceremonies was Michael Young, a past President of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and he opened with the opening remarks and also introduced the special guests who were there.

Debra Lew Wong and Jennifer Tseu started by giving out the door prizes and they had a unique system where they would have each table count off and whoever had the number that they called out got the door prize on each of the tables. They also used several runners who were Jade Penn, Darlene Robertson, Stanford Lee, Aldrinana Leung, and Robbieana Leung. Each runner took care of getting the door prizes to each table and they each had two tables to take care of as we had 10 tables of people in attendance which was about 95 members and guests.

Brenda did her President's Aloha as the 2024 President and also her Inaugural Address as the incoming President for 2025 and she gave her outgoing Board members and Committee Chairs various personal thank you gifts.

After that Mona Choy, past President of United Chinese Society swore all the new Board members and Committee Chairs.

Frances Goo, our Chair of the Elected Directors, presented Brenda with a gift from ACUW as the outgoing President.

Invocation was done by Jenny Lee, Co-Chair of this installation.

Then we had our buffet luncheon which was three entrees and lots of salads and desserts with drinks of hot tea or coffee.

The highlight of the day was our entertainment by our own talented members.

Thanks to Johnny Ng of Rising Tide, we were able to hear all the music as he brought all his equipment to help us with the music and sound.

First up was Michela Hammond who did a beautiful and graceful hula dance to the "The Prayer". Next was Frances Goo who conducted the ACUW Chorus who sang "Mo Li Hua," a Chinese song about the jasmine flowers while Brenda danced to it. The ACUW Chorus was Betty Brow, Emily Ko, Jenny Lee, Jade Penn, Jennifer Tseu, Roberta Wong-Leung and myself.

After that, Frances Goo and the ACUW Chorus sang another Chinese song which was "The Moon Represents My Heart" and again Brenda danced to it.

Since this was a Christmas installation, we felt we should sing some Christmas songs which the lyrics were written on the back of the beautifully and professionally done program brochure by Michela Hammond.

Frances Goo again conducted the ACUW Chorus to sing some Christmas songs, and we wanted audience participation at this time.

Door prizes continued and everyone was happy as everyone who attended got a door prize.

Acknowledgements were done by me to thank all my hard working committee chairs and their committee members.

Michael Young ended the installation by giving the closing remarks and wishing everyone a safe Holiday season.

“New Collection of Poetry Conjures Honolulu Chinatown Circa 1900”

Wing Tek Lum’s newly published third collection of poetry, The Oldtimers, imagines life in Honolulu Chinatown circa 1900, Lum gives voice to the forgotten pioneer generation of sojourners and settlers, detailing the trials and temptations of this bachelor society living far from their homeland—their hard work, their diversions, their challenges, and, even amidst the notorious plague and fire, their perseverance.

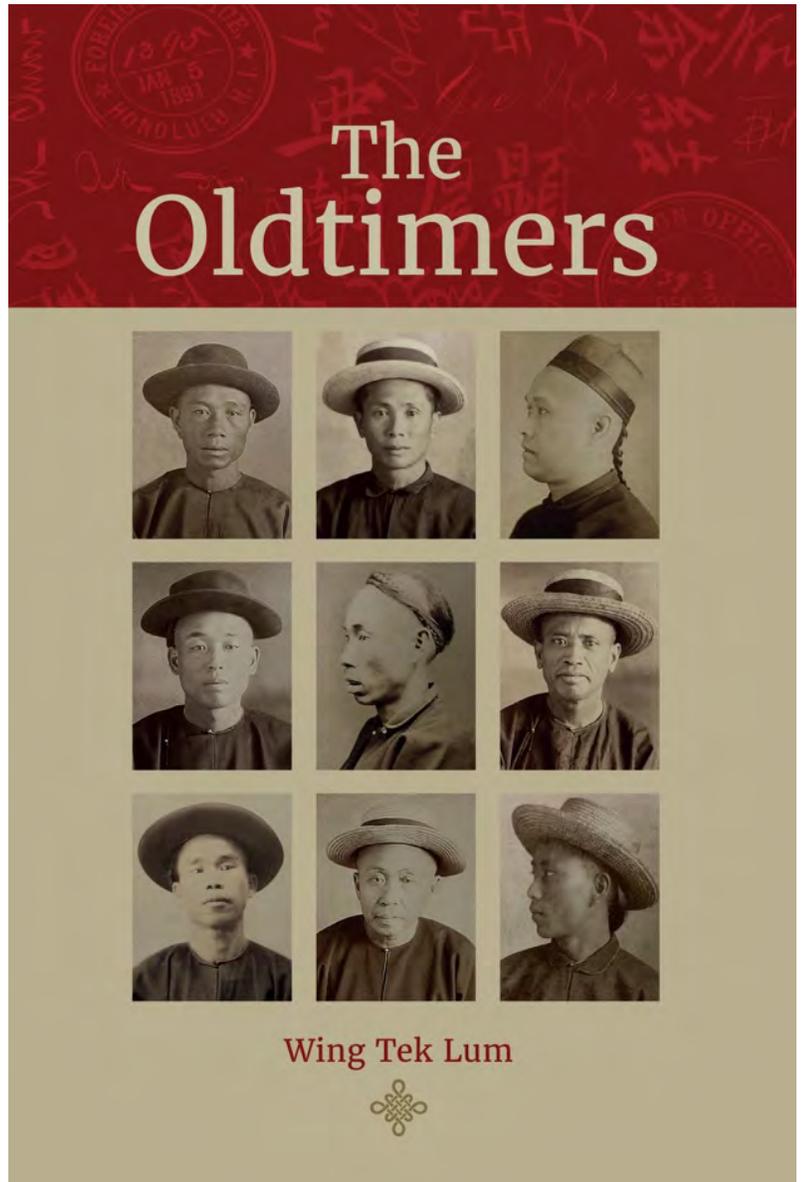

Wing Tek Lum’s poetry, renowned for its vivid imagery, emotional depth, and historical consciousness, revives archival voices with insight and empathy. Verses in The Oldtimers reflect on themes of displacement, labor, isolation, familial bonds and obligations, cultural heritage and adaptation, and the preservation of traditions and values amidst the islands’ rapid growth.

Excerpt from “At Dusk”

The cook inside fires up his wok, deeply patinaed, stir frying slices of pork belly and vegetables
then adding a dollop of his secret shrimp paste, this tiny seed quickly blossoming into a bouquet
permeating the courtyard as the light recedes.
The oldtimer hanging his threadbare wash revels in the savory aroma of this serendipity.
In the gloaming he breaks out into song,
his taut line of bleach-white clothes pegs paddling in unison into the gathering wind.
